ABOUT ME

A Journey Of Healing, Resilience, And Empowerment

Duane Youngblood is a passionate advocate for personal transformation, healing, and empowerment. His unique journey—from surviving abuse to redemption, incarceration, and ultimately becoming a guide for others—serves as a testament to the power of forgiveness, faith, and self-awareness.

Raised in a Christian home as the third of four children to Bishop Moses and Mrs. Sarah Youngblood, Duane Youngblood faced and details the devastating effects of sexual abuse at a young age. This trauma profoundly shaped his life, leading to a complicated relationship with faith and self-worth. In his teens he experienced religious sexual abuse, and this led to a search for the love he felt was missing in his home. In his early twenties, Duane married and entered into pastoral ministry, hoping that serving others would help him heal. However, unresolved trauma led to destructive behavior, resulting in the abuse of others and ultimately a prison sentence.

While serving time, Duane embarked on a decade-long journey of healing and self-reflection. Through therapy, prayer, and spiritual growth, Duane discovered that much of his struggle stemmed from a broken relationship with his father and mother. Reconnecting with this part of his past—embracing the lessons of family and faith—was a pivotal moment in his recovery.

Duane knows the power of clarity and the danger of thinking right and wrong can be defined by any one person's perspective. Duane believes in the journey and has come to realize the power of a made-up mind.

Today, Duane shares his story and works to help others who are struggling with trauma, addiction, or fractured relationships to find healing, purpose, and success.

VALUES

Core Messages & Values

Healing From Abuse

True healing comes from acknowledging trauma, practicing self-forgiveness, and finding peace through spiritual and personal reflection. Many times this requires one to look at the family patterns that have existed for many years.

Generational Healing & Reconciliation

Abuse and trauma can span generations, but healing begins by reconciling with our past, including our Parents. Duane emphasizes breaking cycles of pain and embracing the healing that comes from reconnecting with family and receiving their love.

Taking Responsibility & Transforming

Transformation requires taking ownership of one's actions and their consequences. Duane believes that through accountability and personal change, individuals can live a life of authenticity, integrity and purpose.

Faith And Purpose

Restoring one's faith and aligning with God's plan for their life is key to finding true fulfillment. Duane teaches that by walking in faith and purpose, individuals can move beyond their past and embrace a brighter future.
